The Bur Oak Critter Sandbox

FMV Priceless

Children and sand go together like cheese and macaroni. Imagine the happy hours of fun to be had playing in this hand-painted sandbox. The tiny hands and tiny little feet of the Bur Oak Cottage's children have been transformed into whimsical critters like butterflies, caterpillars, spiders and snails. This cedar sandbox is brilliantly designed with two bench seats that fold up when not in use, creating a cover to keep out any unwanted critters. Just think of all the creative play that awaits your children and their friends, who will no doubt be envious of this fantastic yard art. Sand toys are included, as is the sand, which will be delivered to your home. So there is no excuse to not bring this treasure home today.

The Faces of Chestnut Oak

FMV Priceless

This original oil on canvas painting captures all of the beautiful faces of our children in Chestnut Oak. A talented, local artist was commissioned to paint a one-of-a kind, attractively framed 16 x 20 piece of artwork that will look great on any wall of your home. Every dimple and every freckle of your precious child's face has been captured in exquisite detail, beautifully painted into a landscape of greenery. Elements of The Parish School have been incorporated into the painting as well. Your child will love looking for his or her friends... do not miss out on adding this work of art to your collection.

The Laurel Oak Amazing Technicolor Dream Quilt

FMV Priceless

Won't it feel nice to snuggle with your child under a custom-made, beautiful quilt? The front of the quilt features forty-four different fabric arms and hands of Laurel Oak students and teachers. The colorful hands encircle the Parish Oak Tree, reminding us how our children are not alone in their journeys to become all they can be. The back of the quilt is a patchwork of the corresponding fabrics, centered around a large square of three word phrases submitted by parents that describe their children and their dreams for them. This is a true labor of love, a work of art even, that has traveled across Texas, from Houston to Austin to Dallas and back, lovingly pieced together by a Laurel Oak grandmother. Do not miss your chance to have your heart warmed by this gorgeous and meaningful quilt of Parish memories.

The Post Oak Adirondacks

FMV Priceless

Sit back and relax after a long day of fighting Houston traffic, driving to and from school, work or those therapy appointments. Come home, grab a cold one and enjoy a comfortable spot in the shade. The beautiful Pine Adirondack chairs are painted a calming shade of blue, featuring two Mighty Oaks full of Post Oak acorns. Each student imprinted his or her thumb to create acorns. As a rule, it's generally not advisable to encourage children to write on furniture, but an exception was made for this project. The back of the chairs were autographed by Post Oak students and teachers. Have no doubt, your neighbors will be jealous of your stylish seating... so don't let these chairs sit in someone else's yard. Be sure to bid on these special seats!

More Than a Dog

FMV $2,575

This puppy is promised to please. This little girl was born on October 23, 2011. Her Sire is Elmo, a Standard Poodle and her Dam is Goldie, a Goldendoodle. A Safari For Your Home

FMV $2,000

You will travel to Africa each time you look at this incredible 36" x 54" black and white canvas print personally signed by Andy Biggs, safari photographer extraordinaire. Andy Biggs is an avid adventurer, conservationist, teacher, and outdoor photographer whose photography celebrates the African landscape and its rich wildlife, people, and culture. Andy is also father of Parish student Christian Biggs.

With a deep respect and understanding for African wildlife, Andy unfolds the world of the Serengeti onto our doorstep with striking emotional depth. His photographic safaris allow the traveler to not only enhance their understanding of photography, lighting, and wildlife, but to develop a life-long admiration for Africa's beauty and culture.

In 2008, Banana Republic used thirteen of Andy's photographs as the cornerstone of their Urban Safari campaign. Andy was also the winner of the BBC Wildlife Photographer of the Year in the 'Wild Places' category in 2008.

Andy's photographic interests also encompass the landscapes of the American Southwest. Andy uses camera formats ranging from 35mm to large format, to the latest in digital camera technologies. Andy makes it a priority to shoot when the light is most dramatic, notably the hour after sunrise and the hour before sunset. <http://www.andybiggs.com/>
